This is to state that I have known Siddhant Somvanshi for past 1 months, working as an Business Analyst on the Finlatics Business Analyst Experience Program. I was supervising Siddhant Somvanshi for the Finlatics Business Analyst Experience Program. I found Siddhant Somvanshi to be very diligent and hardworking Business Analyst. Siddhant Somvanshi has deep interests in data-driven decision-making and has a unique way of looking at business problems. The Business Analyst role was aimed at solving case-based projects using the MECE method of problem-solving, MS Excel, and Power BI. Siddhant Somvanshi tackled a range of business cases - ranging from enhancing profitability for a multinational technology business to analyzing the feasibility of a proposed tourism project.
